

Week 3 Idea: Tasks and Treasures – 2 part Idea

Tasks – Trying to play parent, teacher, friend, chef, house cleaner and entertainer is a lot! This week try get the whole family involved!

TASKS

- Assign some extra chores based on the age of your children. They can do chores for you or help you with a chore you are doing. Check out this link for age appropriate jobs for kids. <https://thecraftingchicks.com/weekly-jobs-kids/>
- Meals: assign everyone a day to make or help make a meal or baking. Having them choose what they are making is a great incentive to help out. Check out these age appropriate kitchen jobs: <https://www.lovetoteach.org/for-parents/kitchen-skills-by-age.html>

Getting kids involved means

- They are kept busy during a time when you can't be with them or watching them.
- They learn valuable skills
- They feel like an important part of the family
- They will appreciate all the work it takes to make a meal or have clean clothes

If getting your kids to do school plus more chores sounds daunting check next week's tip - Part 2 of Tasks and Treasures.
